City Planning

Provides Order in Municipal Growth

Hope Chamber of Commerce has arranged a dinner meeting at 6 o'clock tonight (Thursday) at Hotel Barlow to discuss the creation of a city planning board and a master plan to guide the growth of our town.

The primary purpose of the meeting will be to introduce local citizens to Harland Bartholomew & Associates of St. Louis, nationally known leaders in city planning, and also the firm's representative has given his outline of the people of Hope will have a starting point from which to go on with the full program if desired.

There are many aspects to city planning, and all of them represent a field that is pretty generally neglected in the whole community. Scramble of individual business men. Citizens are so busy working for themselves that old-age finally catches up with them before they have ever gotten around to doing the obvious work—work which, of planning for the whole community.

Go anywhere, any section, any city big or small, and you will see dozens of instances in every community of haphazard growth that is either unsightly or actually places a hardship on business today. Residential districts are broken up by narrow lanes of commercial buildings; parks are poorly situated, or left undeveloped for want of a city plan; and, worst of all, perhaps, new sections are brought into the city without any regard to the proper planning of streets. Some of these elements can be charged to hope—and some are equally true of Dallas, Texas.

So community planning is a job for towns big and small; and Hope Chamber of Commerce has tackled a worthwhile project in extending an invitation to the St. Louis firm to meet with our people and see whether the time is right for beginning action in this city.

London Meat Supplies at Low Mark

London, June 24. —(UP)—Supplies of fresh meat today dwindled even below the level of the worst days as the London dock strike went into its eleventh day, with no sign of settlement.

No one in London this week will go without the usual ration of one shilling's worth of meat. A shilling is about 20 cents, and it buys perhaps a half pound of meat, but the shortage of fresh meat resulting from the wharf strike will force Londoners to take more than the usual twopenny worth (a little more than three cents) of the ration in canned corned beef.

Next week, if the strike continues, will be even worse. The food ministry warned that Britons will be very lucky next week if they get more than six pence worth (about 10 cents) of fresh meat. The rest will be available in corned beef, however.

A food ministry spokesman said that the butter, sugar, margarine and egg rations have not yet been affected.

About 3,000 of the 20,000 striking dockers, lightermen and cold storage workers have returned to work following appeals from the government and their union leaders. The others appeared determined to continue the walkout which began when 11 longshoremen were refused special "diary cargo" pay for unloading a shipment of zinc oxide.

For the second day, the government sent a few hundred troops of the coldstream guards into the strikebound docks to move perishable food cargo, but no attempt was being made to handle other shipments.

Arkansas River Swollen by Heavy Rains

Little Rock, June 24. —(AP)—A major flood in the Arkansas river in the Fort Smith area tomorrow was predicted by the Little Rock weather bureau today.

In the wake of "excessively heavy rains in Arkansas and Oklahoma the last few days, the bureau today forecast tentative crests of 30 to 33 feet at Fort Smith and Van Duren Friday. Flood stages at both points are 22 feet.

The 11-inch downpour in 12 hours which swelled the river at Kingfisher in northwestern Oklahoma, plus several days of heavy rains in the two-state Arkansas river valley area sent the mounting crests plunging down the river.

More showers today in both states were indicated in the weather forecast.

The river forecast also predicted above-flood stage crests at points above Little Rock, Ozark, where flood stage is 22 feet, was expected to crest of 28 to 29 feet Saturday.

Readings eight feet above the 22-foot flood stage were seen for Dardanelle Sunday, and 13 to 14 feet above the 20-foot flood stage at Merritt Monday.

At Little Rock, where the river stage today was 1.4 feet, a rise of approximately 23 feet in four days was forecast. The crest here was expected to be 23 to 24 feet late Monday.

Flood stage of 25 feet probably will be reached at Pine Bluff Tuesday, the forecast said.

First indications of the impending flood in Arkansas was the 21.4-foot stage on the Arkansas river at Fort Smith today, a rise of 9.4 feet in the last 24 hours.

Ozark had 12.4 feet, a rise of 10.5 feet, and Dardanelle had a reading of 8.4, a rise of 3.7 feet.

Rises of a half foot or less in the last 24 hours were recorded at Morrilton, Little Rock and Pine Bluff.

Big Show to Be in Hope July 4 Holidays

A big July 4, celebration, under sponsorship of the Third District Livestock Association, will be held at Fair park Rodeo Arena in Hope on July 3, 4, and 5 with two performances daily except Sunday.

Feature attraction will be J. C. Michaels Big City Grandstand Circus. There will be five shows starting at 3 p.m. July 3. Night show will be staged July 3 and 5 at 8 p.m. and other afternoon shows are set for 3 p.m. on Sunday, July 4 and Monday, July 5. There will be no Sunday night performance.

The J. C. Michaels big city grandstand circuses are well known to Middle West Fair Groups and are acclaimed by officials, press and public as tops among grandstand circuses. This outstanding show is noted for its quality acts.

There will be thrilling circus acts of every description to entertain the crowds, including sensational tight wire acts, phenomenal balancing acts, high aerial acts, equestrian acts, thrilling skating acts, animal acts, rolling globe acts—in fact every type of circus acts to make up a 2-hour show.

The big circus unit will be displayed on a big open air platform in the center of the Rodeo Arena. Fair park Acts will be called by a special circus announcer and master of ceremonies. They furnish entertainment for every member of the family.

Officials of the Livestock Association have secured one of the finest attractions and feel it will offer residents of this section a safe and same way to spend the holidays. The association of the Third Arkansas District extend an invitation to every family in the district to take advantage of this splendid opportunity to see a fine show.

Wainwright Asks for MacArthur

By REX CHANEY

Philadelphia, June 24. —(UP)—It was almost 4 a.m. before the old soldier got his big chance.

He had waited through seven hours of oratory. But Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright was accustomed to waiting.

Early in 1942 he had waited, first on unattended Bataan and then on besieged Corregidor for help that never came. And he had waited more than three agonizing years in a Japanese camp before he was delivered from his captors.

Now he had a message for the Republican national convention. He had left a sick bed in Texas to deliver this message. And he was going to see it through—even though the delegates were dog-tired and the galleries were almost empty.

Wainwright was here to tell the Republicans that they should nominate for president his old chief—Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur had been put in nomination in a few minutes before in a stirring speech by a blind man—Delegate Harlan W. Kelley of Milwaukee.

Now, finally it was Wainwright's turn.

In a cool white summer suit he stepped up to the speaker's platform. The glaring lights blazed down upon his close-cropped head.

The fortune he had suffered in a Japanese prison camp was forgotten now—but it still showed in the deep lines that criss-cross his lean, leathery face. Wainwright stood ramrod straight and spoke.

His voice was not strong. But it was firm.

The country he said, needs a president who is almost a superman. And that man he went on to say, was Douglas MacArthur.

Wainwright said that 48 years ago he and MacArthur were cadets together at West Point. He recalled too, that he and MacArthur had fought shoulder-to-shoulder in two great wars—he added now that this man, his old commander, he given the highest honor in the land.

It was, he concluded a proud privilege and honor and a pleasure to second the nomination of Gen. Douglas MacArthur for the presidency.

Wainwright's audience had listened reverently. It was a small audience but it's heart was big as Convention Hall. And its heart was filled with pride for the warrior—a pride that burst spontaneously into a great cheer when Wainwright finished at precisely 3 a.m.

But he did not stay for the tribute. Even if he had, the chance he would not have heard it.

For the merciless Japanese shelling of Corregidor has left him almost totally deaf.

El Dorado Man Crushed to Death

El Dorado, June 24. —(AP)—An El Dorado contractor was crushed to death yesterday when he fell between the track and frame of a tractor he was operating.

The victim was James G. Gray.

The accident occurred at the County Line Lumber Company, 18 miles from El Dorado on the Magnolia highway.

Truman Signs Navy Expansion Measure

Washington, June 24. —(AP)—President Truman today signed into law a bill carrying $374,059,250 to maintain and expand the navy and marine corps during the year starting July 2.

The measure includes funds with which to start construction of a 65,000-ton air craft carrier that will cost an estimated $127,000,000. It will be the largest of its kind afloat.

The navy had asked $397,739,700 for the year.

The House first cut this by $250,000,000 and the Senate restored $125,000,000. The final total was a compromise midway between the two chambers.

Under the measure, wartime reserves and previous appropriations, the navy will have more than $5,000,000,000 to spend in the next 12 months.

Maritime Strike Headed Off by U. S. Judges

New York, June 24. (UP)—The actions of federal judges in New York and San Francisco today headed off a nationwide maritime strike by 100,000 union members scheduled for tonight.

An 80-day injunction against the strike was issued here by U. S. District Judge John Clancy. The no-strike order was against the National Maritime Union, the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association and the American Radio Association, all CIO unions.

In San Francisco, U. S. District Judge George B. Harris granted the government a 14-day extension of its temporary restraining order against other unions threatening to strike.

A similar restraining order was issued yesterday in Cleveland preventing a threatened strike on the Great Lakes at least until July 2. President Truman had ordered the government attorneys to seek the injunction against the strike under provisions of the Taft-Hartley law.

In handing down his decision, Judge Clancy ruled that a maritime strike would endanger national safety and health.

The injunction provided that CIO leaders must be prevented from the use of union hiring halls to furnish workers for the ship operators. That is one of the main issues involved in negotiations between the unions and the ship owners.

Joseph C. Curran, head of the N.M.U., said that the injunction meant only that the strike would be delayed 80 days and that the union men would go on at that time if the union hiring hall issue had not been permanently settled.

Employers have insisted that in order to comply with the Taft-Hartley law the hiring hall must be operated by an impartial dispatcher, instead of by union men as is done at present.

Others among the seven unions involved in the threatened strike were the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (I.L.W.), the Marine Cooks and Stewards Union (M.C.S.), the Electrical Workers (A.F.), and the Marine Firemen's Union (M.F.U.).

Petition Calls for Race Track Abandonment

West Memphis, June 24. —(AP)—A proponent of the proposed horse track here said today, "the question is far from being settled."

Wils Davis, Memphis attorney representing a group that filed a temporary application for a track, said: "I don't know what will be done, but something should be known in the next week or so."

Davis asked the state racing commission Tuesday to defer action on the application because he said he understood petitions were being circulated in Crittenden county to call an election to outlaw racing.

J. O. Spotts, president of the West Memphis Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday that the 120 petitions were being called in and filed with the election commission "when needed."

We have more than the required 1,000 signatures for calling the election," Spotts said.

He said he did not plan to file them unless the racing commission should grant a franchise. We see no need to press the matter further at this time," he said he understood they were valid indefinitely.

Little Rock Wins Fight for Air Port Purchase

Washington, June 24. —(AP)—The city of Little Rock has won its fight for acquisition of Adams field its airport which was operated by the government during the war, and certain surplus property at the field.

Mayor Sam Wassell of Little Rock announced here that the War Assets Administrator Jess Larson had agreed to give the city title to the properties without requiring the city to waive claims for damages against the government.

The properties include an adjoining street field and fire fighting and maintenance equipment. The WAA originally had agreed to transfer the property only if the city dropped its claim for more than $300,000 against the government for financial loss to the city through war department operation of the field.

Oklahoma City, June 24. —(AP)—Highway patrolmen, working against the crest deadline of the rampaging Canadian river early today evacuated the 300 persons in the eastern Oklahoma farm community of Whitefield.

Persons in that town were more fortunate than those in other sections of Oklahoma, where many have been found drowned and 3,000 others made homeless. With other communications out, walkie-talkie radio sets were pressed into service in an effort to locate other flood victims.

Hydro in the western Oklahoma wheat belt was hardest hit. An unofficial 10 inches of rain caused a flash flood on Deer creek which inundated the city.

At Oklahoma in northeastern Oklahoma national guardsmen patrolled streets against looters after the business district was under water.

Okmulgee creek, which cuts through the heart of that city, 18,000 persons forced almost 2,000 persons from their homes. All roads from the town were cut off by the high waters.

In the eastern river valleys towns and farmers braced themselves for the flood crests yet to come and almost due.

Even as the weather bureau forecast gradual relief, new and heavy rains hit Oklahoma City in the state's central section. Ardmore in the south and McAlester in the east.

All the deaths so far are at Hydro in the west central sector, where Deer creek rose in a flash flood Tuesday night and sprang a five-mile death trap along U. S. 66 transcontinental highway.

A Greyhound bus and more than 50 cars and trucks were trapped in a wall of water that rose swiftly where the creek wind across the highway four times.

Six dead were taken from one car, the bodies of two other motorists were found where the waters swept them, and nine victims were a Negro bus passenger who drowned in the dark while trying to swim to safety.

The search for more dead continued today. The state highway patrol lists four bodies of one-year-old baby—as definitely missing. In addition, the occupants of seven abandoned machines have not been traced. Two cars had Texas and Wisconsin license plates; the others were local.

First Draft to Only Get Single Men

Washington, June 24. (UP)—The first draft call will take in only single men without dependents in non-essential jobs, administration officials said today.

President Truman will exercise his authority under the new draft act to defer men in the 18-through-25 age group who are supporting a wife and children or other relatives.

They said the president also will grant deferments to "necessary" workers in agriculture industry and government.

The Selective Service bill, which is now awaiting Senate passage, is said to provide no blanket deferments for these groups. It does, however, exempt most veterans ministers and divinity students and the sole surviving son of a "Gold Star" family.

These administration officials emphasized that in the event of an emergency fathers and others deferred by special provisions might be liable for induction.

With the National Guard already above its quota of 341,000 men, high army officers were hoping for prompt signing of the draft bill. They were said to fear that the recent upsurge of guard enlistments might throw the nation's military machine out of balance.

At present men who sign up for the draft but presidential action will slam shut this "escape hatch."

When he signs the bill, Mr. Truman is expected to issue a proclamation calling for registration of all youths 18 through 25. Inductions will not begin for another 90 days unless the president declares a national emergency before then.

All draftees will go into the army at the outset because both the air force and navy intend to depend on volunteers.

Army sources estimate they will need 500,000 men per month for the first year. They said the army must be increased in size from 348,000 to 837,000 men.

Officials said two factors will govern the draft calls: 1. How many volunteers there are. 2. How rapidly the army can get the camps medical and sanitary facilities, clothing and other essentials ready for the new recruits.

State Police Active During Month of May

During the month of May District 4 of Arkansas State Police, headed by Sgt. J. H. Porterfield of Hope, made 184 arrests.

During this period 1,142 warnings were issued, 1,164 light corrections were made, service rendered to 187 motorists and 119 drivers tests given. Two stolen cars were recovered in the district and 20 auto accidents were investigated.

Honeymooners Not to Wear Shoes

Eureka Springs, June 24. —(AP)—A California couple is honeymooning in this mountainous North Arkansas resort without shoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Forehan of Santa Ana were given the trip and a week's stay here by the NBC radio show Truth or Consequences but with the stipulation that they go barefooted.

The Forehans will be guests of honor at a "barefoot ball" in the Basin Park Hotel Saturday night, the event to be broadcast as part of the Truth or Consequences program.

But if the Forehans are unhappy about going barefooted, Arkansas citizens are more irate over the whole stunt, especially the "barefoot ball."

Among Arkansians who have protested that the stunt will give the state bad publicity are Lum and Abner, the CBS radio comedy team.

Oldtime residents say the gag ball will be the first barefoot dance ever held in Arkansas. A state which long has been ribbed as a state of hill-billies and residents who didn't wear shoes.

Coal Operators Ready to Sign Pact With Lewis

Washington, June 24. —(AP)—Soft coal operators, except for steel company mine interests, were reported ready today to sign a new contract with John L. Lewis giving him an eight-hour day or $1.63 an hour. The new rate would double the pension fund royalty levy.

Such a wage increase would be 12 1/2 cents an hour. Miners now receive a basic pay of $13.05 cents an eight-hour day or $1.63 an hour. The new rate would double the pension fund royalty levy.

The welfare fund, from which pensions would come, is accumulated now through a 20-cent-a-ton royalty levy which is passed on to consumers. During the last year this has raised $45,000,000.

Under the proposal reported ready for signing this royalty would be boosted to 25 cents-a-ton and would raise an estimated $100,000,000 a year. From this Lewis wants to pay his retired miners $100 monthly, together with benefits for dependents.

Terms of the proposed contract were learned privately as coal operator representatives, except for Harry M. Moses, steel company negotiator, met behind closed doors with Lewis and the United Mine Workers' chiefs.

Other features in the tentative proposal included: Retention of the controversial clause by which miners are bound to work only when they are "able and willing" to do so.

Granting of a union shop to the UMW subject to provisions of the Taft-Hartley labor act.

Continuance of $100 vacation payment for miners eligible to retire. The length of the contract was reported not yet determined. Some of the operators were said to want a two-year agreement, instead of one year.

Republicans of Arkansas Favor Stassen

Philadelphia, June 24. —(AP)—An Arkansas delegate to the Republican convention, seconding the nomination of Harold E. Stassen for president, said today a GOP ticket headed by the Minnesotan could defeat the New Deal.

Addressing the convention in the early morning hours, Osro Cobb of Little Rock.

After stating that 35 per cent of the voters in the Arkansas general election of 1940 voted the Republican ticket and that there is "a definite affinity of interest between" Southern farmers and Midwestern Republicans, he added:

"The time is here for the Republican party to make a bold bid for electoral support from the South."

Cobb said that when Stassen visited Arkansas he "made a terrifically fine impression."

It is not wishful thinking," he said, "to believe that Governor Stassen heading the ticket as our candidate for president will contribute most to the building of a two-party system in the South and to the election of the entire Republic to the world's best government."

"It is my earnest opinion that of these candidates, Governor Stassen of Minnesota would have the best chance of carrying some of the Southern states."

Says Arabs Will Reject Any Peace Proposal

Cairo, June 24. —(UP)—King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan said today that the Arabs would reject any proposal for a Holy Land settlement that failed to give them sovereignty over Palestine.

Abdullah, the strong man of the Arab world whose capital became headquarters of the fight against the Jews, gave his views on a Palestine settlement at a press conference.

He flew here Tuesday to visit King Farouk of Egypt. His pronouncement on the possibility of permanent peace in Palestine gave the visit the flavor of a high Arab strategy conference.

Clay Warns Allies Will Not Leave Berlin

By JOHN B. McDERMOTT Berlin, June 24. —(UP)—Nothing "short of war" will drive American forces from Berlin, Gen. Lucius D. Clay said today in defying Russia's most determined effort to force the Western Allies from the German capital.

While U. S. tanks and jeeps patrolled the American sector of Berlin on the lookout for trouble, the American military governor for Germany hastened to Heidelberg for conferences with his army commanders.

In a hurried press conference there, he told reporters: "They can't drive us out of Berlin by anything short of war as far as we are concerned."

Clay said he believed present Russian tactics in the battle of Berlin were "perhaps trying to put on the final pressure to drive us from Berlin."

"It's unfortunate," he added drily, "that the pressure makes Germans suffer too."

Russian moves have included stopping all freight trains to the German capital, thus cutting off the supply routes which feed only the approximately 30,000 Western Allied troops and civilians in the city but also about 2,000,000 Germans in the western-controlled sectors.

The Soviet authorities also have cut off electric power from the Russian sector of Berlin and the Soviet zone to western sectors of the city.

The crisis stemmed directly from the Russian attempt to force their own currency reform on all Berlin, including the sectors controlled by the U. S., Britain and France. But it actually was a new manifestation of the long-range cold war the Russians have been waging to force the Western Allies to leave Berlin, which lies deep in the Soviet zone of Germany.

It was believed here that Russia wants Berlin as the capital of a new Soviet state, and that it will return to the Russian capital to direct Russian activities in the battle of Germany. Announcement of plans for the new east German state was expected to come from Moscow probably within a week.

Airfield officials confirmed that Molotov, who led a Russian delegation estimated at nearly 300 who were here for the conference which began yesterday, will leave for Moscow at 10 a.m. tomorrow (25th, EDT).

Molotov presided at today's session, which brought foreign ministers and staffs of all the Russian satellites here, it was said.

No talks are expected to continue through tomorrow and perhaps into Saturday, it was believed. Romania's foreign minister, Ana Pauker, will preside tomorrow, it was said.

Officials of the Russian plans for the new east German state—the Soviet answer to the six-power decision of the Western Allies for a unified western Germany—were available in any quarter.

In Berlin, an American-licensed German newspaper said the new east German state would be proclaimed June 30 or July 1, and that the Russian-sponsored Berlin city assembly would be its first governing body.

The second session of a momentous conference of eastern Europe opened at 9 a.m. (3 a.m. EDT). It was being held under rigid security regulations, with all delegates ordered to keep the proceedings secret.

Whitten Pleas for Whittled Government

Emmett, June 23. —(SP)—Vernon Whitten, Seventh District congressional candidate, reiterated here tonight his plea that the federal government be whittled down and much of its taxing authority returned to the states.

"When you and I and other like-minded citizens bring the federal government down to the size it should be, it still will be the world's largest business and should be handled on business principles," he declared.

"Don't tell me that the best plan is to keep sending the major portion of the tax dollar to Washington and then having to get down on our knees and beg for some of it back. We should keep more tax money here in the beginning and in that way have enough money to finance our own local roads and schools."

Dewey Leader of Ballot But Lacks Majority

Convention Hall, Philadelphia, June 24. —(AP)—The vote by state on the first ballot roll-call for the Republican presidential nomination follows:

(Those formally placed in nomination are Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, Harold Stassen of Minnesota, Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan, Gov. Earl Warren of California, General Douglas MacArthur and Gov. Raymond E. Baldwin of Connecticut.)

There was a chance some states might change their vote before the second roll call.

The unofficial count: Dewey 434, Taft 224, Stassen 157, Vandenberg 62, Warren 59, J. Martin 18, Green 56, Baldwin 19, MacArthur 11, Dirksen 35, Reece 15, Dirksen 1.

Philadelphia, June 24. —(AP)—The vote for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, already leading the Republican presidential nomination close to his grasp, swelled higher today. Massachusetts Senator Leverett Saltonstall got out as a "favorite son" in Dewey's favor, West Virginia gave him a boost.

These developments in the final hours before the balloting gave the look of a bandwagon roll. Dewey's aides were working on an acceptance speech.

A key Midwestern leader, who has fought Dewey's nomination, told reporters "it's all over," but asked not to be quoted by name.

Saltonstall announced he was withdrawing because he believed it "is the best interest of the Republican party in Massachusetts." He said he was for Dewey and had asked the Massachusetts delegates to "exercise their own best judgment."

There has been a terrific fight within the bay state's 35-vote delegation. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., and others have been holding out for Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg.

Walter S. Hallanan, West Virginia national committeeman, came out for Dewey. He said the New Yorker at the head of the ticket would make it certain the Republican Party would border states in the fall elections.

Even after Hallanan's move—which was not unexpected—the anti-Dewey forces were talking bravely, but Saltonstall's move was a blow.

Before the Massachusetts development, Harold E. Stassen pressed belief Dewey actually was losing ground. He said he understood three Kentucky delegates, and one from Indiana, had left the Dewey camp.

About the time Saltonstall was holding his news conference, Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, got out a statement naming Rep. Charles Halleck of Indiana as Dewey's choice for vice-president.

McCormick said "Dewey will not be nominated because the delegates realize he will be hard to stass and declared: "Everyone knows that the Indiana delegation was bought by the vice presidential nomination for Halleck after Gov. Green turned down the offer for the Illinois delegation."

Governor Kim Sigler of Michigan told reporters he would take a poll of his delegates to indicate where they wanted to go if the nomination appeared lost to Vandenberg.

Dewey lieutenants claim there are at least 33 second choice votes for Dewey in the Michigan delegation.

Stassen had a pre-session conference with Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., of Massachusetts. Lodge is plugging Senator Arthur Vandenberg for the nomination. There are reports that Stassen, if he can't get the big prize himself, would prefer to see it go to Vandenberg.

Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio conferred with members of the Utah and Kentucky delegations, and told reporters he also had been carrying on a lot of "telephone conferences."

Asked whether he was making any progress, Taft smiled.

Witness Admits He is a Rat and a Squealer

New York, June 23 —(UP)—
Edward Fennessey, 17, a witness for the state in the murder trial of Santo Baretta and Willie Rosenberg for the gang-land slaying of Benjamin (Chippy) Weiner was being questioned by defense attorneys.

"You know what it means to sneak," asked an attorney.
"Yes," replied the witness.
"You know what it means to be a rat?"

"Yes," he replied.
"Are you a squealer and a rat?"

"Yes, sir," he replied.
That stopped the defense lawyer. He excused the witness.

This happened after the speech nominating Stassen.
First voice: "What did he say?"
Second voice: "I couldn't hear.
Yell anyway."

NEW YORK COTTON

New York, June 24 —(P)—Cotton

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, June 24 —(P)—Wheat firmed on the board of trade today but corn and coats showed no definite trend.

The July corn contract was steady most of the day, largely because of the shortage of old crop grain. More deferred deliveries however, eased on improved crop prospects. Oats also were mixed with the July showing easiness
most of the session.

Greeks Crash Into Guerrilla Positions

By L.S. CHAKALES

Athens, June 23 —(P)—The Greek second and tenth divisions crashed full force today into the guerrilla pocket in the Grammos mountains near Albania.

A general staff communique said the Greek divisions continued a drive along the Albanian border, capturing a guerrilla base and piercing the rebel defense line based on the town. The communique indicated the ninth division thus moved closer to a junction with the first or the 15th division, moving up from Nestorian.

Dispatches said some guerrillas are trying to go into Albania (a Communist state) to avoid imminent encirclement. Officials circles said these probably are only a small part of the rebel force, estimated at 7,000, under attack.

Elements of the Greek ninth division were shelled by artillery and mortars from Albanian territory into Albania, fled down the frontier

Not To Pull Out

Little Rock, June 24 —(P)—The Arkansas Democrat today quoted spokesmen for Jack Holt and Horace Thompson as saying the two men are in the race to stay for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

The paper said reports had been current that the two candidates might merge forces in an effort to win the nomination. One report said Holt might withdraw in favor of Thompson. Another said Thompson might bow out in favor of Holt.
Spokesmen for the two candidates told the Democrat that their men had no plans to retire before the July 27 primary.

Meanwhile, Candidate Sid Mc-
Math, who served in the marine corps during World War Two, won endorsement of the Greater Little Rock Marine Corps League.

The Doctor Says:

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service
During World War II a disease called epidemic or infectious hepatitis caused a good deal of trouble. This disease has been recognized in occasional outbreaks or individual cases for a long time and was formerly called catarrhal jaundice. It is an infectious disease involving principally the liver. It has occurred in more or less widespread epidemics both in this country and in many theaters of military operation.

In more than four-fifths of the patients there is an early period of the disease lasting a few days, which precedes the characteristic jaundice, or yellow coloration of the skin. In about one out of 10 the jaundice appears at the beginning. The early stage is usually accompanied by easy fatigability, slight nausea and almost complete loss of appetite.

Some Have High Fever
About half of the patients have a fever of up to 103 degrees. The fever gives the victim an intense yellow color of the skin and eyes and other mucous membranes; sometimes the yellow coloration is very slight indeed. Headache is present in a few. After the jaundice has appeared the second stage lasts from about two to three weeks. A convalescent stage is recognized too, lasting for one or two months. Usually from six to eight weeks is required for full recovery, though a few patients may not be quite well for several months. A chronic form has been described.

The most important part of treatment is to begin strict bed rest early and to keep it up for a long enough time to diet containing a high proportion of protein foods is also used and seems to shorten the course of the disease. The cause of this condition is probably a virus which is a tiny living organism too small to see under the ordinary microscope. Although much has already been learned about this disease much more needs to be discovered and on this problem many capable scientists are working.

QUESTION: Are arthritis and sinus trouble due to polyps in the nose?
ANSWER: Sinus trouble could be caused by or perhaps made worse by polyps in the nose. Arthritis probably has nothing to do with them. Polyps can be removed by surgery and sometimes by other methods, but frequently come back.

XXXVIII

"Lacy will be home the fifteen-ten. Tom told Jessica one evening. Then he added, 'You will be free to leave then.'"

Free! How could she be free, she wondered irritably. She wanted so desperately to shake off the burden of anxiety and worry which enveloped this old house. She tried to convince herself that she would be glad—yes, glad when she turned her back forever on Tom Blake and his family.

One afternoon David invited her to go for a drive. No reason to refuse. Tom had no interest in what she did. His aloofness hurt her. After all, she had tried so hard to help him during his trouble, struggled to keep the house as his mother kept it, worked valiantly as a cook, and feeling a surge of pride when Tom occasionally praised her. Not long ago, she and Tom had longer talked each other. They shared a home, which was something different, something which lacked the thrill of that first night when they had shared a room. Tom brought her to Akron. Something she would never experience again, once she left Tom. The thought angered her. When she left she wanted to make a clean cut, have nothing to remind her of Tom.

But there was Betsy, she remembered. She thought of Betsy now as David remarked that since nursing conditions were difficult, they might live in a hotel.

Jessica wanted to say that Betsy would not thrive in a hotel, but there was time enough to discuss that later. Right now she had an urgent plan to which she must win David's consent, a plan that had come to her the night before when she was writing her father, telling him she would soon be home in Kentucky.

David liked to talk about Kentucky. He was always interested in her descriptions of her home and the big plantation which her grandmother owned. Now she introduced the subject and he listened attentively.

Jessica was a bit breathless as she broached her plan. "I want to take Lucy with me to Kentucky."

"Permanently?"
"I don't know — You see — the change will help her," she pleaded.

A glance at his set face told her that David was angry. He looked straight ahead as he skillfully threaded the thick downtown traffic. He said bluntly, "That plan is out — definitely out. Do you suppose I want to visit you and confront that girl? Have you considered what Linton will think?"

"What should I care what Hugh Linton thinks?"
"Because Hugh Linton has the power to dictate my future."

An oppressive silence followed. David turned off the busy street and drove on for blocks. Then suddenly the car entered a park entrance, the same park to which Jessica had taken Betsy one bright autumn afternoon when she was heart-sick and lonely.

David stopped the car. The sun slanted, blood red, through the snow-clad trees.
"Do you remember?" he asked softly.

"Yes." Her voice seemed lost in the silence of the woods. David pulled her roughly toward him and kissed her — again and again. There was no warmth in her lips. He gave a startled exclamation.

"I love you, darling," he told her.
Many, many times he had said that, and always she had thrilled to his voice. Now she pushed him away.

"She said, 'I don't love you, David.'"

The silence terrified her. It was dusk, the shadows deepened in the woods and she could not see David's face clearly. After a little while he repeated blankly, "You don't love me?"
"No. I'm afraid I never loved you."

David said harshly, "What do I do now? Laugh? Is this some crazy joke? Are you angry because I objected to your scheme to help Blake's sister?"
That had nothing to do with it," said Jessica sadly.
But his lack of understanding about Lucy, about anything which

Pays to Be Old Says W. E. Bruner

W. E. Bruner says it pays to get old. On June 21, 1948 he celebrated his 80th birthday (60th anniversary in the handle business) and about 4 p.m. he was called to the Bruner very Handle Company's plant where he met a committee of 8 who took him in charge, one hold of each arm and holding 'his head down while the 3 used the strap with holes in it—well you can imagine the rest. Then he was handed 2 orders, one from the employees of the Handle Company good for one suit of clothes, one hat and one pair shoes. The other order was given by Guy E. Basse and Carl Bruner, owners of the Bruner very Handle Company. A plant of Hamm Motor Company for a new Deluxe 1948 Plymouth Car—was he surprised. Then they took him for a ride, put him on a platform and drew him up toward the skies with their big trucks, log loader and asked him to read to the big crowd of about 230 men and women who were gazing up toward the skies and wondering if he would ever come back down. He read his orders to the crowd with trembling voice but he appeared to make them all understand how much he did appreciate their friendship and their wonderful presents.

Then about 7 p.m. that evening his sons and daughter-in-law and grand children went over to his home where they enjoyed a feast of watermelon, sang songs, made speeches which were recorded and were played on the machine which all enjoyed very much.

DOROTHY DIX Tyrants Ruin Homes

The real reason that so many marriages that should be successful go on the skids is bossiness. Both the husband and wife are determined to be the one who rules the roost, and by the time they have fought over that for years and years they have killed love, made their home a shanties, and are living in a state of armed neutrality that is likely to flare up into warfare at the drop of a word.

I often wonder if the greatest surprise that a bridal couple ever gets is when each discovers that the party of the other part is going to contest his or her right to the throne and to be he or she who must be obeyed. It isn't what courtship led them to expect. John was such a courteous lover that Angelina thought she could manage him with one hand tied behind her, and it never occurred to John that a sweet little soft thing like Angelina would have ideas of her own that she would fight for to a finish.

But the thing that couldn't happen in marriage generally does happen, and before they know it the forty years' Civil War is on. John is a fine, upright man, kind and generous, and he is really devoted to his pretty little wife, but he is sold to the belief that he has the divine right to be the head of the house and that his wife should know before him and ask him what he thinks she thinks.

Dale O. Money
So he does out the housekeeping money to Friend Wife and makes her account for every penny. He picks out her clothes. He decides on her religion and her politics and makes of her nothing but a veritable rubber stamp of himself.

Unless Friend Wife is as celestial as he is and as determined to run the domestic show. In which case they slug it out in a never-ending fight over every trifle. All of us know men who are powerful figures in the outer world, but who have been so heaped at home that they never dare to voice their own opinions.

The tyranny complex that so many parents have goes a long way towards explaining the juvenile delinquency problem. And that, when you come down to brass tacks, is about the meanest and most contemptible phase of human conduct. It is so easy to beat up a baby, or show one's authority by denying a youngster some little treat.

Half the things that children do that they get punished for their parents don't really object to at all. It is just tickles their vanity to be able to lord it over someone who is weaker than they are. Mother won't let her teen-age daughter pick out her clothes because she doesn't want her to look up. She won't let her have a boy friend because she is jealous of her having good times. She makes her go to bed at 9 o'clock because she doesn't want to be disturbed herself.

Father boasts that he is the dale who never lets a child "talk back" to him by way of explanation. He never gives his children any freedom, or any money, or lets them do any of the things that the other kids are doing. Then he wonders why his children leave home.

It is tyranny that brings on wars, wrecks marriages and breaks up families. What a price to pay for the pleasure of bossing others!

Rochester Entry Favorite in Le Bonheur Show

Memphis, Tenn., June 24 —(AP)—Entries from the Dodge stables of Rochester, Mich., loomed today as top contenders for the five-gaited championship of the Le Bonheur horse show.

Dodge stable's Rhythm, following in the footsteps of Wing Commander, winner of Tuesday's stallion stakes, moved to an easy win in last night's $300 five-gaited mare stake.

The $1,000 junior fine harness stake, the night's number one event, was taken by Genius Queen, owned by Don Davidson of Dallas. Other results:

In and out jumpers: Star Cliff, owned by Joe Mackey Jr., Overland Park, Kansas.
$500 amateur three-gaited stake: Society Ann, owned and ridden by Don Davidson, Dallas.
Lightweight working hunters: Kaysrey, owned by Janet Horowitz, Oak Park, Ill.

Five hundred eighty nine million acres of western range land are eroding.

Charles Baker Is Entered in Decathlon

Bloomfield N. J., June 24 —(AP)—Twenty-three entries have been received to date for the national A.A.U. decathlon championships and final Olympic tryouts Saturday and Sunday at Foley Field. Al Post, president of the sponsoring New Jersey A.A.U. announced today.

The Olympic hopefuls from 16 states will seek in addition to national honors, the three places on the American Olympic decathlon team for the London games next month.

Entries included:

Phillies Prize Hurler Comes Through

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Robin Roberts, 21-year-old right-hander is proving the Philadelphia Phillies made a smart move when they gave him $25000 to sign with their organization.

The lanky speed ball pitcher gained his first major league victory last night, stopping the Cincinnati Reds 3-2 at Philadelphia. Roberts held the Reds to seven hits — two of them homers — by Hank Sauer and Danny Liwihiler. He fanned nine and walked only three.

The game was the only one played in the National League. A scheduled doubleheader between Chicago and New York and single games between Pittsburgh and Brooklyn and St. Louis and Boston were postponed because of rain.

In the American League the second place New York Yankees beat the league-leading Indians, 5-1 in 11-innings in a night game at Cleveland. The setback cut the Indians' lead to two-and-one-half games.

Tommy Henrich broke up the game with a grand-slam homer off Don Black who went the route for the Tribe. Ken Keltner hit his 17th homer in the seventh inning to account for the lone Cleveland run.

The third place Philadelphia Athletics, behind the six-hit pitching of Dick Fowler, swamped the Browns 12-1 in another night tilt at St. Louis. Herman Franks led the A's 14-hit attack driving in five runs on a homer, triple and double.

At Detroit in a day game the Washington Senators nosed out the Tigers 2-1. All runs in the game were unearned. Dizzy Trout held the Senators to four hits while four Washington pitchers allowed six.

A scheduled day game between the Boston Red Sox and the White Sox in Chicago was postponed because of rain.

Skilled Wages
Editor The Star: Very nicely said in your paper recently in regards to the electrician repairing those high-powered lines under such hazardous condition (referring to William Feather quotation in editorial column June 18).

You might also mention our many other skilled employees such as engineers, firemen and other skilled men and women who are employed in the many industries of our city.

You can also note they are only paid about the same wage scale as common labor receives in most other places that have union scales. This should be considered by our Chamber of Commerce, and something done to bring the scale of wages up to standard with other places that have an organized scale, as this town has quite a number of skilled workmen who are very much underpaid.

We have a town that is building and progressing, so let's get behind our working people, who make our town business build, and give them a decent wage, for they are the people who make our town and spend their money there.

Then we can get somewhere.

So why not bring our standards up?

Or should we have organized labor, I mean organized—not just a racket that exists now.

Or should our skilled people move to other places?

'Miss America' of 1947 to Get Married

Memphis, Tenn., June 23 —(AP)—A marriage license was issued here yesterday to "Miss America," 22-year-old Barbara Jo Walker and Dr. John Vernon Hummel, 24.

They plan to be married Saturday night in a lavish ceremony before 2,000 invited guests. Arrangements will be directed by the Memphis Florists Club. Police will provide an honor guard and the church steeple will be flood-lighted by the fire department.

Miss Walker, a choir singer and Sunday school class teacher, has turned down screen offers, saying she preferred a simple life.

Greenwood Again Boosts Lead in Cotton States

By The Associated Press

Greenwood's Dodgers have boosted their lead in the Cotton States League to six full games over the Hot Springs Bathing, after the Hot Springs Dodgers, who had defeated the Natchez Indians 7-2 while Clarkdale's Planters were defeating the second place Hot Springs Dodgers 5-2 at Clarkdale.

Greenwood's Bucks continued to lead the second division, handing the El Dorado Oilers a 1-0 shutout. Meanwhile, the cellarite Pine Bluff Cardinals won their first game under new manager Johnnie George by trimming the Helena Seaporters 6-3 at Helena.

Greenwood outdid and outfielded the Natchez Indians to take their game handily. Hazle pitching for the Dodgers allowed the Indians but five safeties.

Clarkdale rattled out nine hits to six to take the Hot Springs Dodgers to the bathroom without much difficulty. The Dodgers were guilty of three errors.

At Greenville Alex Zych bested Copeland Goss in a hurler's duel to give Greenville its victory and shutout. Greenville's winning run came in the seventh when Moose Womack slammed out a double and scored on John Martin's single. Pine Bluff took an early five run lead. One of those came in the third when Smerek slammed out a homer with none aboard.

Tonight Hot Springs plays at Clarkdale. Pine Bluff at Helena. El Dorado at Greenville and Natchez at Greenwood.

Quarterfinal Play Starts in Women's Meet
Chicago, June 24 —(AP)—Polly Riley a current Texan and Babe Didrickson Zaharias who belongs to the Lone Star state by remote control tangled today in the key quarter-final battle of the 19th women's Western Open golf tournament.

Their upper bracket scrap highlighted four 18-hole matches over the rambling 6,494-yard Skycrest Country Club course.

Although Miss Riley a tiny 22-year-old pepper-pot from Fort Worth, has dropped four previous meetings to Babe she appeared primed to give the 34-year-old former Port Arthur-Beaumont-Dallas athlete a real run for her money.

Miss Riley yesterday exploded for the most one-sided second round triumph a 6 and 5 verdict over another Texan, Bettye Mims White of Dallas and in so doing turned in the most efficient job of the meet.

Fair Enough

By Westbrook Pegler
Copyright, 1947
By King Features Syndicate.

Philadelphia, June 23 —Clare Boothe Luce, the peachy wench who lured Roosevelt the first into Connecticut in the presidential campaign of 1944 and beat him single-handed, beat Roosevelt, Henry Wallace and Clifton (Killer) Frazier, the bull butterfly of the literary left—Clare came back to the brawls in the opening night of this year's convention to mock them all in rippling prose with trout-hooks in the ripples.

Mrs. Luce was a candidate for her seat in Congress four years ago, but she and whoever says that Roosevelt hated her will have to admit that she hated him at least as well and to better effect. Roosevelt Wallace and the Communists had scouted a she-lawyer to carry the target for them and the C. I. O. and Bubblehead Wallace set forth through Clare's district on foot like a political Johnny Appleseed thumbing hitches and pushing doorbells. Wallace had not yet been publicly harassed to his zuzu, Nick Roerich, the Joss House Mahatma, and Roosevelt and the Democratic National Committee were not yet put to the need of treating him as a political prodigy who ought to be in Harvard—in a bottle.

Henry went drooling up and down Fairfield county Conn., pausing wherever he found three munitioneers waiting for a bus to wipe away the slobber with the back of his hand, shake his bang and launch forth, "My friends!" In Chicago, Roosevelt and Sidney Hillman had turned Wallace down for renomination for vice-president and drawn the unoffending Harry Truman out of a leather bottle flung from a poolroom. Returning to New York, Henry had been assigned a pair of fly-cops from police headquarters to flank him on his wanderings and Bubblehead had suddenly flung out his arms and sent them floundering in one surprising lunge and fled through crowded streets with startled civilians yelling "Stop!" and himself in danger of being shot for a thief by harness cops. The vice-president of the United States, the one Roosevelt had selected by phone to Madam Frances Perkins in Chicago in 1940, then dived into the subway and disappeared to be rounded up again by another detail of detectives as he poked his head out of the Kiosk Harlem.

They knew they had a wild man for vice-president when that mad day was over.

Now, formally repudiated by Roosevelt, Bubblehead went to Conn. to beat Clare Luce and Roosevelt, himself, on route to Boston to profane the name and friendship of Al Smith before the Irish stopped off to tip the scales against the girl who had every thing. He made his speech and Republican headquarters telephoned La Luce and offered her anyone she wanted, up to Dewey, himself, to come over the hills and help. She shook them off. She would lick him herself and she did and incidentally, with the back of her hand, she knocked over Frazier, a noncombatant commando who had said he was going to wring the pretty neck of chivalry in Clare's home district. He wrung the necks of no Nazis incidentally, as Mrs. Luce never forgot to say, and when the votes were counted, she had licked the New Deal's first team and a lot of the scrub as well. It was a triumph personal and political.

Mrs. Luce has had a share of success. She has written plays books and pieces. She went to Congress for two terms, the second time under the circumstances here noted. She quit of her own accord.

16 Top Flight Players Enter Unversess Meet

Toledo, O. June 24 —(AP)—A purse of $10,500 hung at the end of 120 holes of play today as 16 of the nation's top-flight professionals launched the 11th Unversess best-ball round-robin invitational meet.

The winners get $2000 of the melon, and practically everyone expected goldfom's golden boys Ben Hogan and Jimmy Demaret to pick that check after Sunday's final round.

The two transplanted Texans have won three of the last four Unversess classics and Ben is the current leader in the money class as well as National Open and PGA champion, the first guy in a quar-ter-century to take both big titles the same year.

Other opening round pairings:
Bobby Locke, South African champion and Ed Fegol vs Chick Harbert and Vic Ghezzi; Ed Mangrum and Dick Metz vs Clay-ton Haefner and Herman Keiser; and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and Bob Hamilton vs Johnny Palmer and "Skip" Alexander.

but probably because the Connecti-cut machine wouldn't let her play Senator. She took a turn at acting and did all right although the new deal sent up a claque of hecklers to carry the night to holler and wave and exchange autographs during her moments. Many critics have been direct de-factors of Roosevelt personally and his family and agents.

She was invited back to address the convention in the year of recovery, and the speaker was as near a thing as we have in American politics to Winston Churchill. Like Churchill, but un-like Roosevelt with his team of spooks, she writes her own and bets and polishes the rolls and loops of language and so, delivers them not as a melodious ham doing recitations on the lathering powers of soap, but as one who knows what they were meant to mean.

It is a fact never to be conquered by electronics or the science of acoustics that the female voice is a horror on the air and in a large hall is only more terrifying by the well-meant aid of mechan-ics. Mrs. Luce is as bad as the worst as, indeed, they all are. Churchill could growl at Mussolini that he would tear his "wretched omph" to shreds and "tatters" and in calling Hitler "a miserable guttersnipe" he got into the saying a rumbling hatred that no other has matched in the day of radio. material.

Mrs. Luce often prides herself on her own com-position, a pride that Moos-jaw never could feel in the cliches of Sherwood, Moley and Rosenman/

"Let's waste no time measuring the unfortunate man in the White House against our specifications. X X We should be grateful to vice-president in 1944 and that he did not fail. If he had failed our president today would be Mr. Wallace. Yes providence wrote straight with crooked lines when Truman-gave us colorless Harry Truman-instead of red Hank Wal-lace."

Now, to be sure there was a dull unworthy stretching for sound effects which Churchill would have rejected on artistic grounds and Clare could have avoided as she veen willing to. But remembering Roosevelt's success with straight light-club repartee like the phrase "the needy and the greedy," she may have reckoned that you can make your stuff too good for the American people. So we heard her saying that Democratic presidents were troubadours of trouble and cronies of catastrophe who could win only in the climate of crisis. It was Roosevelt and bad Roose-velt at that but it was more like Churchill at bay when she said "why doesn't the new deal trust the people? We have given the answer. Public confusion on vital issues is Democratic weather."

Haganah Again Goes Underground Following Clash

Tel Aviv, Israel, June 24 —(AP)—Irish Loyalist, back underground today following its bloody break with Haganah.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause backache, leg pains, rheumatism, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Frequent or constant urination and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 million of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

of Israel May 15, resumed its position as an illegal, armed political group.

As a result, a major government crisis appeared in the making. Two ministers quit the Israeli government yesterday and a party leader blamed the Irgun-Army rift squarely on Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion.

(In Jerusalem, a local Irgun leader called on Jews in the Holy City to overthrow the Israeli government. In Paris, a statement was issued in the name of Irgun, charging the Israeli government with "pursuing a policy of surrender."

"The truth is," the statement said, "that the provisional government has already decided to put an end to the war and to get peace at any price."

U. S. Democratic Party rules provide twice as many delegates to national conventions as do Republican party rules.

Due to the fact that it is not known how long it will take the Republican national convention to complete the balloting for Republican candidates for president and vice president, the Mutual Broadcasting System is making available its time to give complete coverage to this convention. KXAR will present all local programs as previously scheduled for Friday, and make the remainder of its time available to the Mutual Broadcasting System so that the listeners of this area might be able to hear the proceedings of the Republican national convention.

Here and There in Arkansas

Springdale, June 22 —(AP)—Philip Parker, 45, Rogers was burned critically today while working near a 60000 volt transmission line.

Parker, employed by a Chicago construction firm, was engaged in a construction job at the Southwestern Gas and Electric Company's substation here. He was on beams, 14 feet above the ground, when apparently he got close to his body and ignited his clothing.

The fire was extinguished by other workmen. The veterans hospital here reports he has a chance to recover.

Memphis, Tenn., June 23 —(AP)—The number of new homes started here last month was nearly 50 per cent below that in April, the Citizens Housing committee announced today. It termed this "somewhat disturbing."

The committee said only 232 homes were started in May. It said sales activity in completed houses also is ft.

Little Rock, June 23 —(AP)—Boll Weevil infestation in Southwest Arkansas was reported today.

The Federal-State Crop reporting service said the infestation ranged from "moderate to heavy."

Cotton plants appear to be relatively free from insects in other localities and the crop generally is in good condition in this state, the report said.

Hamburg, June 23 —(AP)—Two teen aged boys drowned in Saline river near here yesterday.

They were: Fred Deckelman, about 17, and J. W. Harville Jr., 18, both of Fountain Hill Ashley county.

A witness said Deckelman, who could not swim, fell from the bank into deep water, and that Harville attempted to save him.

Memphis Tenn., June 22 —(AP)—Carl F. Schmidt, 61-year-old tailor, says his dog saved his life because her hearing was better.

He was reading a newspaper in his shop yesterday when the dog began to bark and ran for the door. He left his desk to investigate.

Just after he moved the ceiling plaster above the desk collapsed crushing it to pieces.

Malvern June 24 —(UP)—A 17-year-old Malvern high school student stood charged with arson today after admitting setting three fires at the farm home of his parents.

Clayton Henry Smith told state and Hot Spring county officers that he set a fire that destroyed the family residence last February.

Officers said he admitted setting fire to the barn early this month to get his family's attention so he could burn the new house his father had finished the day before. This attempt was thwarted but he succeeded in burning the house this week, officers said.

He was quoted as saying he was ashamed of the house.

Prisoners to Get to See Television

Michigan City, Ind. June 23 —(UP)—Inmates of Indiana's state prison here will get a daily look at the outside — through television.

Warden Ralph Howard said today he believes the prison's big video set is the first in any prison in the country.

The set was built and installed by Will Mason 49, serving a life term for the holdup slaying of an Indianapolis policeman.

He has been working on it in his spare time, after his regular prison duties. Prison officials, skeptical at first, provided him with the funds he needed for equipment.

The set with a screen measuring eight by 10 feet, was put into operation yesterday.
